

TURNING AND MILLING OPERATIONS TO HIGH SPEED WITH VECTOR CONTROL USING ONLY ONE ELECTROSPINDLE

During the turning, the shaft is hydraulically clamped with a system that does not influence the bearings. During the milling operations the clamping system is switched off , so is possible to have high speed rotations in base to the customer request